Dear Parents,

Greetings from TWGS!!!!

We are excited to inform you about an enriching opportunity for our students to participate in the AFS Inter-School Competition, "Forgotten Art," organized by Pacific World School. 🧐👤

Theme:

"Forgotten Art" aims to revive and celebrate traditional art forms that are often overshadowed by contemporary trends. This competition invites students to explore these ancient practices and showcase them through visual arts or performing arts. It's a chance for them to express their creativity while promoting cultural diversity and heritage conservation.

Competition Details:

1. Categories:

- Visual Arts: Painting, drawing, sculpture, etc.
- Performing Arts: Dance, drama, music, etc.

2. Class Categories:

- Grades 11 and 12 (Teams of 2-5 students)
- Grades 9 and 10 (Teams of 2-5 students)

3. Submission Requirements:

- A 2-minute video demonstrating the art form.
- A high-resolution image of the artwork.
- Videos must be uploaded to YouTube, and the link should be submitted in the submission form.

4. Important Dates:

- Last date to submit names to Mr. Anil: September 2, 2024
- Last date to submit artwork to Mr. Anil: September 11, 2024

5. Judgment Criteria:

- Authenticity and fidelity to the chosen art form
- Creativity and originality in interpretation
- Technical skill and craftsmanship

Result Declaration: October 19, 2024

Winners will receive Certificates of Achievement. 🏆

We encourage our students to participate in this unique competition and help revive the beauty of our cultural heritage. For any queries, please contact Mr. Anil.

Thank you for your continued support.

Regards

Principal
